

TRAINEE LINE MECHANIC POSITIONS

OPPORTUNITY FOR

WAIKATO-TAINUI TRIBAL MEMBERS

Transpower is a state-owned enterprise that operates New Zealand's high-voltage electricity transmission grid, providing a delivery of bulk electricity to towns, cities and major industries across the country.

Waikato-Tainui is working collaboratively with Transpower to provide an opportunity for tribal members to apply for 10 Trainee Line Mechanic positions.

Line Mechanic training is fully funded and will be undertaken at the Transpower Training School based in Blenheim.

The first intake is in April 2010.

Upon completion, trainees will be placed into employment with tower erection or foundation insulation crews where they will receive on-the-job training, while earning a salary.
